The Glen Taylor Nursing Institute for Family and Society

The School of Nursing at Minnesota State University, Mankato has launched The Glen Taylor Nursing Institute for Family and Society, focused on innovative nursing practice knowledge that influences the health and healing of families and society. This Institute is dedicated to providing leadership and expertise in family and societal health at local, state, national and international levels.

The Nursing Institute, Visiting Scholars, and Doctoral Fellowships are made possible by a Glen and Becky Taylor endowment, committed to enhancing family and societal health.
The Glen Taylor Nursing Institute for Family and Society

- Supports the scholarship of nursing practice with emphasis on advancing family and societal health and healing
- Establishes and nurtures an intellectual community of scholars
- Develops inclusionary models that translate knowledge to change practice and improve family and societal health and healing
- Focuses on development, testing and dissemination of nursing practice models

For more information, contact Sandra Eggenberger, Ph.D., R.N. at 507-389-6821 or sandra.eggenberger@mnsu.edu. The Institute is online at ahn.mnsu.edu/nursing/institute/.

Please attend an informational session.
Come to enjoy dessert, coffee and conversation.

Date: Thursday April 8, 2010  Time: 8:00 - 9:00 P.M.  Location  Penn Valley Room, The Westin Crown Center, Kansas City