

Majors assigned to the Allied Health Advising Office

- Alcohol and Drug Studies
- Applied Health Science/Community Health Education
- Communication Sciences and Disorders
- Dental Hygiene
- Exercise Science
- Family Consumer Science
  - Students in Dietetics and FCS: Education majors are commonly assigned a faculty advisor immediately upon their studies, however the Allied Health Advising Office can also help assist these students and can occasionally be an additionally assigned advisor.
- Health and P.E. Teaching
- Recreation, Parks, and Leisure Services
  - Students in RPLS are commonly assigned a faculty advisor immediately upon their studies, however the Allied Health Advising Office can also help assist these students and can occasionally be an additionally assigned advisor.
- Sport Management

All students in the college eventually progress into being assigned a faculty advisor based on a variety of factors on where they are at in their journey.