

INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR IN STUTTERING AND BEHAVIOR THERAPY

November 1-4, 1966

Highlands Inn, Carmel, California

CO-HOSTS

Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing

Monterey, California

AND

Department of Audiology and Speech Pathology

Stanford University

PLANNING COMMITTEE:

Gene Brutten, Southern Illinois University

George Wischner, University of Pittsburgh

Albert Bandura, Co-Host Representative, Stanford University

Gene England, Co-Chairman, Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing

Burl B. Gray, Co-Chairman, Project Director, Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing

PROGRAM SCHEDULE
INTERNATIONAL SEMINAR IN STUTTERING AND BEHAVIOR THERAPY

November 1-4, 1966

Highlands Inn, Carmel, California

DAY 1, NOVEMBER 1, 1966

AM	10:30-11:00	Opening Remark* Burl B. Gray, Monterey Institute for Speech & Hearing Hayes A. Newby, Stanford University L. Deno Reed, Vocational Rehabilitation Administration
	11:00 - 11:45	"Behavior Therapy of Stuttering: Deconditioning the Emotional Factor" - Joseph Wolpe, Temple University School of Medicine
PM	12:00- 1:30	LUNCH
	1:30 - 2:50	Papers and Discussion - Theory "Operant Conditioning and Stuttering" - George H. Shames, University of Pittsburgh "Behavior Therapy and Stuttering: The Need For A Multifarious Approach To A Multiplex Problem" H. Gwynne Jones, St. George's Hospital Medical School, London, England
	2:50- 3:10	BREAK
	3:10 - 3:50	Papers and Discussion - Theory "Stuttering: The Disintegration Of Conditioned Negative Emotionality" - Gene J. Brutten, Hunter College of the City University of New York
	5:00- 6:00	Hospitality Hour
	6:30	SUPPER

EVENING OPEN

PROGRAM SCHEDULE CONTINUED

DAY 2, NOVEMBER 2, 1966

AM	9:00 - 10:20	Papers and Discussion – Therapy "Stuttering Viewed as a Sequence of Responses" Margaret Marks, University of Wirwatersrand "Stuttering: Clinical Application of Response-Contingent Procedures" - Ed Leach, Parsons State Hospital and Training Center
	10:20 - 10:40	BREAK
	10:40 - 11:10	Papers and Discussion - Therapy "A Two-Factor Approach to the Problem of Stuttering" Donald Shoemaker, Southern Illinois University
PM	11:10- 1:30	LUNCH
	1:30 - 2:50	Papers and Discussion - Therapy "Preliminary Report on Treatment of Stammering by the Use of Rhythmic Control" - Victor Meyer, Middlesex Hospital Medical School, London, England "The Relationship Between Theory and Therapy in the Treatment of Stuttering Behavior" - Aubrey J. Yates, University of New England, Australia
	2:50- 3:10	BREAK
	3:10 - 4:30	Plenary Discussion
	6:00	SUPPER ~ BANQUET STYLE
	6:30	Dinner Address - "The Role of Role in Stuttering" Joseph Sheehan, University of California at Los Angeles

PROGRAM SCHEDULE CONTINUED

DAY 3, NOVEMBERS, 1966

AM	9:00 - 10:20	Papers and Discussion - Research "Experimental Modification of Speech Disfluency" Gerald M. Siegel, University of Minnesota
		"Stuttering: The Measurement Of Anxiety During Reciprocal Inhibition" - Burl B. Gray, Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing
	10:20 - 10:40	BREAK
	10:40 - 12:00	Papers and Discussion – Research "Research Into Rhythm Effects" - H.R. Beech, Maudsley Hospital, London, England "Experimental Analysis of Stuttering and Carry Over of Fluency Outside the Laboratory" - Israel Goldiamond, Institute for Behavioral Research, Silver Springs, Maryland
PM	12:00 - 1:00	LUNCH
	1:30	Bus Tour of Monterey Peninsula. Bus leaves hotel at 1:30 and will return at approximately 4:30
AFTERNOON OPEN
	7:30 - 9:00	"Demonstration of Some Major Behavior Therapy Techniques" Arnold Lazarus, Behavior Therapy Institute

PROGRAM SCHEDULE CONTINUED

DAY 4, NOVEMBER 4, 1966

AM	9:00 - 10:20	Papers and Discussion - Case History "Stuttering: Reflections On A Two-Factor Approach To Behavior Modification" - Gene J. Brutten, Hunter College of the City University of New York "Verbal Reinforcement in Therapy for Stuttering" George H. Shames, University of Pittsburgh
	10:20 - 10:40	BREAK
	10:40 - 12:00	Papers and Discussion - Case History "The Stutterer as Subject or Object?" - Fay Fransella, St. George's Hospital Medical School, London, England "Case History Of A Stutterer Treated As An Obsessive-Compulsive Disorder By Broad-Spectrum Behavior Therapy" Arnold Lazarus, Behavior Therapy Institute, Sausalito, California
PM	12:00 - 12:30	Summary Address George Wischner, University of Pittsburgh
	12:30 - 12:45	Closing Remarks Gene England, Monterey Institute for Speech and Hearing